WOMAN DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR SENATE

ST. PAUL, MINN., June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—Returns from Minnesota's state-wide primary Monday were sufficiently near completion today to show Mrs. Anna Dickle Olsen far in the lead of Thomas Meighan, her nearest opponent for the Democratic nomination for United States senator.

Sentiment on the question of sending a woman to the United States senate will be an added feature to party issues in the general election in Minnesota next November.

The nomination of Mrs. Olsen as the senatorial standard bearer for the Democrats next fall will call for an expression of this sentiment in addition to the question of adherence to party lines and issues involving the national administration.

Frank D. Kellogg, junior senator from Minnesota, and one of President Harding's stalwarts in the senate, who was renominated in the Republican primary over Ernest Lundeen, will face the political barrier, with Mrs. Olsen next fall, along with Henrik Shipstead, the farmer-labor nominee. Senator Kellogg remained in Washington during the primary campaign, leaving his candidacy in the hands of the regular Republican organization, which gave him its endorsement in the state convention.

Mrs. Olsen likewise was an endorsed candidate. Delegates to the Democratic state convention, like the Democrats at the polls Monday, selected her as the organization candidate for the senate.

The first woman to sit in congress—Miss Jeannette Rankin—came out of the northwest when Montana voters sent her to the lower house in 1910. Whether the northwest will give the senate its first woman member will be answered at the polls in Minnesota next November.

Miss Grace F. Kaerger, of Orono, was the Republican nominee for clerk of the supreme court. Governor C. A. O. Preus and other Republican state officials were renominated.

TERRIBLE POGROMS IN THE UKRAINE

COPENHAGEN, June 21.—(By The Associated Press)—A Helsingfors message to the Berlingske Tidende says that terrible pogroms have been committed in the Ukraine. The entire Jewish population of four towns is reported to have been massacred.

This report has not been confirmed from other sources.

Delay In Return Of Strike Ballots

CHICAGO, June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—Although expressing hope for a rush of ballots the rest of the week, union headquarters, where the strike vote of railway employees is being tabulated today, admitted disappointment over the volume of returns in the nation-wide referendum of shop men and other rail workers in the question of a walk-out in protest against wage cuts ordered by the United States railroad labor board.

Reports on the balloting at the turnstile shops of the Illinois Central were to the effect that the balloting there had been "overwhelmingly" against a strike.

But five days remain before the general committee of 10 representing the rail workers meet in Chicago to canvass the returns. The general chairman are expected to arrive Friday and Saturday, intending to begin the balloting count on Sunday.

B. M. Jewell, head of the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor, who urged the union voters to return their ballots early so the result could be announced at the time the $136,000,000 wage cuts become effective, July 1, is expected back from the Cincinnati convention tomorrow to take charge of headquarters during the closing days of the referendum.

Rail workers and their leaders today were digesting the reply of Ben W. Hooper, chairman of the railroad labor board, to the nine union chiefs who informed the board that a strike would be authorized in the referendum favors a suspension of work on the roads.

What effect Mr. Hooper's statement that the proposed strike would be disastrous to the railway unions, unfortunate for their members and unjust to the public, would have on the balloting the remainder of the week was a matter of conjecture.

Mr. Hooper's letter, which was addressed to Mr. Jewell, said the strike vote should not be taken on any misunderstanding of the action or attitude of the board and asserted that the ultimatum of the union chiefs manifested "a strikingly distorted conception of what the board has done and why it did it."

Mr. Hooper said, although he felt no reply was required, he also felt it his duty to answer the union leaders in the interest of railway peace and because the threatened strike "contains such possibilities of loss and detriment" to the strikers.

Playwright Guilty Of Murder

PARIS, June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—Madame Marie Besarab, poetess and playwright, was found guilty today of the premeditated murder of her husband, Georges, whose body was found concealed in a trunk at Nancy, two years ago. The court found there were extenuating circumstances.

Her daughter by her first husband, who also was on trial, was found not guilty.

Madame Besarab was sentenced to twenty years at hard labor.

Clean-Up In "Dry" Offices

CHICAGO, June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—Dismissal of 40 prohibition investigators in Chicago presages a clean-up in the offices and a new campaign against the illicit liquor traffic in the city and state, according to reports today. Announcement of a wholesale dismissal of dry agents followed many reports of incompatibility in the Chicago office and accusations of graft against some of the agents.

Resignations of 15 agents last night were followed by the report that 22 more would leave today.

France Alarmed Over German Military Mission

PARIS, June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—French official circles are displaying considerable concern over the arrival in Moscow of a German military mission, which Colonel Ludendorff, chief aide to General Ludendorff, and Colonel Heintz, an assistant of Hugo Stinnes, are members. The officials say they have reason to believe the military men have gone to Moscow to make a survey of the soviet army with a view to a possible military accord between Germany and Russia.

The presence of German officers in Moscow and the recent warlike utterances of M. Freunds, chief of staff of the Bolshevik army, are regarded with significance by the French officials.

Proposes Study Of Medicines And Methods

CHICAGO, June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—A commission of unbiased scientific investigators to make a critical study of all systems of medicine and methods supposed to cure people, to analyze the claims of each and then give the public the truth about the art of healing, was proposed today by Dr. David A. Strickler, of Denver, Colo., president of the Federation of State Medical Boards in the United States, before the 78th annual convention of the American Institute of Homeopathy.

Dr. Strickler pointed out difficulties of establishing high educational standards for persons who are licensed to practice medicine or various healing arts.

JOHNSON INCREASES SUSPENSION OF RUTH

CHICAGO, June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—Ruth's argument with Umpire Dineen yesterday before the Cleveland-New York contest will keep him out of the game two days in addition to the three day suspension imposed yesterday.

President Ban Johnson, of the American League, announced today, Ruth consequently will not be able to play until Monday.

President Johnson increased the home run king's suspension, originally three days, for disputing a decision made by Umpire Dineen in Monday's game at Cleveland, to five days when he received a long report from the umpire today, detailing remarks made by the outfielder yesterday when ordered off the field in compliance with Mr. Johnson's first during.

Mr. Johnson announced that Ruth is suspended without pay and that this feature of the decision will cost Babe $1,500 or $300 a day, which was said by the American League president to be the player's salary.

"Babe Ruth is going to behave himself or I'll keep him out of the game all summer," Mr. Johnson said in making known the decision.

"Babe Ruth is going to behave himself or I'll keep him out of the game all summer," Mr. Johnson said in making known the decision.

Mr. Johnson's statement that the suspension without pay would cost Ruth $1,500 was the first official statement that has been made concerning the home run king's salary.

At $300 a day, on a basis of 154 games, Ruth would receive $46,200 for the season's work. At the time he signed his contract last winter it was understood that he also was to receive a substantial bonus for each home run. It was understood that any such bonus was not included in Mr. Johnson's estimate of the player's financial loss through the suspension.

Volcanoes In Eruption

ROME, June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—The activity of Mount Vesuvius for several days past has caused considerable alarm in the surrounding villages, but experts consider that the alarm is groundless. An eruptive cone within the crater burst and from the northern side a thick stream of lava flowed eleven yards wide, which, however, is gradually decreasing. A thick smoke with incandescent material swept upwards to an altitude of about 1,200 feet, creating a magnificent spectacle.

The experts attribute the re-awakening of Vesuvius to the abundant rain, which always increases the activity of the mountain, but believe there is no special danger to the Vesuvius villages or the visitors crowding them to enjoy the picturesque sight.

HUALA, T. H., June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—A heavy column of black smoke arising from Mauna Loa crater was visible here today. The sky over the volcano glowed last night with an unusual brilliancy. Reports have reached here of an eruption of Mauna Loa, but Professor T. A. Jaggar, Jr., United States volcanologist, has not been able to discover any lava flow. He expressed the opinion that the renewed activity of Mauna Loa might be caused by lava from the Kilian volcano, which was in eruption last month, reaching the crater of Mauna Loa through subterranean channels.

JOHNSON TURNS DOWN U. S. SHIPS
NEW YORK, June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—When William E. "Popeye" Johnson sails for Liverpool tomorrow to resume his prohibition drive overseas, it will be on the British steamer Scythia.

"I will not ride on American bootleg scows," he said today, announcing his decision. "I don't regard such ships as being safe to travel on."

The managers of the United States shipping board spend much money advertising in American newspapers appealing to Americans to ride on their ships for patriotic reasons, and then more money in European newspapers appealing to Europeans to ride on American ships because there is plenty of "boots" on board. I don't know what these shipping board folks could do to make America more ridiculous in the eyes of the world."

MINES OPEN; TROUBLE FEARED
TERRE HAUTE, IND., June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—Seventeen wagon mines, closed last week by strikers' demonstrations, opened this morning. All the mines are heavily guarded and no trouble was reported during the first hours of their operation.

A mass meeting of strikers has been called for this afternoon to discuss further action. Authorities fear that trouble may follow this meeting, as some of the radical leaders, it is said, favor an attack late today on the miners at work.

Pro-Treaty Party Has Big Lead

DUBLIN, June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—The approximate representation of the various parties in the parliament chosen at last Friday's election, as shown by returns up to this afternoon, follows:

Coalition treaty 53
Constitutional republicans 34
Labor 15
Farmers 14
Independents 10

DUBLIN, June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—Of the 42 republican candidates in the constituencies where there were contests in Friday's parliamentary elections, 18 already have been declared elected. Final returns from the places where the count is still unfinished, will, judging by the figures now available, show further defeat of treaty opponents.

One noted survivor probably will be Cathal Brugha (Charles Burgess), chief of Eamon DeValera's lieutenants, who, although he is not yet elected in Waterford, can only lose by some unrepresented constituency in the count.

Results announced today show the removal of many of the best known persons in the Dail Eireann. Of the six women members, all anti-treaty, only Mary MacSwiney survived and Mrs. Kate O'Callaghan was returned unopposed.

Mrs. Pearse, whose two sons were executed for their part in the Easter week rebellion, was defeated in County Dublin. The figures show that she received comparatively few transfers of votes.

Conspicuous among the defeats was that of Eirvine Childers in Kildare. He received only 572 votes, fewer than any other candidate. His pro-treaty colleague was given more than 19,000 first preferences. The possible effect of the disappearance of so many leading republicans from the Dail is still discussed.

It is announced that in Galway the pro-treaty candidates on the Sinn Fein panel, P. J. Hogan, O. O'Malley, Prof. Wleichen and George Nicholls, were elected. Mr. Hogan is minister of agriculture in the Dail cabinet.

2 TRUCKS, 12 AUTOS, WHISKEY CAPTURED
OAKLAND, CAL., June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—Two trucks and twelve large passenger automobiles, containing 1,000 cases of Canadian whiskey and seized after an armed encounter near Point Lobos yesterday, were in charge of prohibition agents here today. Eight prisoners, drivers of the trucks and cars, onto which the whiskey was being loaded, according to the federal officers, were placed in jail pending arraignment on charges of violation of the Volstead act.

The whiskey, valued at around $150,000, was part of a consignment of 2,500 cases from Vancouver, B. C., ostensibly destined for Ensenada, Mexico.

Three aviators were despatched from Kelly field, San Antonio, yesterday to the lower Rio Grande valley for food relief work. Their instructions are to work from Camp McAllen and drop bags of food to marooned farmers, who may be found in the flood areas. Eighth corps area headquarters was expected to despatch a company of engineers with pontoons to Eagle Pass and help restore communication there with Piedras Negras, both railroad and highway bridges having been washed out.

No figures are available on loss of life in the flood. It is believed many Mexicans living in the lowlands were caught and swept away. One Mexican after riding down stream nearly 100 miles on a raft, swam ashore at Laredo yesterday.

50,000 Clothing Workers Go On A Strike

Daugherty Asks For Information

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—Attorney General Daugherty without other comment today made public the following statement:

"In regard to the two steel merger cases now before the department of justice, it was announced today that the department of justice, would be glad to hear from any dependable person who has any legitimate argument to offer against the merger."

The two mergers which have been before the department of justice, are the recently effected Bethlehem-Lackawanna consolidation and the pending combination of the Republic Iron and Steel, Midvale Steel and Ordnance and Inland Steel Companies.

The attorney general's statement was given varying interpretations, some officials, although not commenting for publication, seeing in it an indication that thus far the department of justice had found no basis for any legal proceedings.

NEW YORK, June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—Fifty thousand workers in the men's clothing industry left their jobs throughout the metropolitan area today to force manufacturers to let their work out to registered union contractors, it was announced by Hyman Blumberg, chairman of the New York joint board of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America.

15 Minute Fight With Two Bandits
CHICAGO, June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—While an inventory was being made today to determine the exact loss in the attempt late yesterday of two bandits to steal $200,000 worth of diamonds in a daylight hold-up of a jewelry firm in the Masonic Temple Building, the police were watching several houses in an effort to arrest the second of the two bandits, one of whom was captured last night.

Estimates of the loss varied today from virtually nothing to $100,000. The two bandits surprised Max Klein, member of the firm, and his salesman, Leo Bachman, and in a 15-minute fight that followed more than $200,000 worth of sheet stones were strewn around the floor.

HUNDREDS MAROONED

BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS, June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—With San Antonio 24 miles up the Rio Grande, the Rio Grande flood reports also were received from the Mercedes river at San Sebastian, 42 miles from here. Reports from there today said the water had reached the Gulf coast line track and San Sebastian was threatened with isolation within 48 hours at the present rate of rise.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—The critical stage in the lower Rio Grande valley flood, which has inundated nearly 16,000 acres in Starr, Hidalgo and Cameron counties, marooned nearly 1,000 Mexicans in small border towns and covered the roads leading west of Mercedes, is expected between midnight and dawn Thursday when the crest of the upper flood is due to reach the edge of Starr county.

This upper flood, the result of a cloud burst in the hills of Terrell county, Texas, last Saturday, is remarkable in the history of the river, not only because it has exceeded all previous records, but also because of its slow movement and sustained volume.

From a stream normally 200 to 300 yards wide and 18 inches to 6 feet deep, the Rio Grande has become fifty feet deep at the flood crest and from three-quarters to a mile wide. The volume of water is so great that at Laredo, Texas, where an unofficial stage of 52 feet was reached at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, the river still was fifty feet deep at six o'clock last night.

At Eagle Pass, a 51 foot stage was reported at midnight Sunday and it had receded to six feet above normal at six o'clock Tuesday evening.

The flood crest appears to be moving at five miles an hour, which will bring it to the lower valley after midnight tonight.

Those familiar with the lower Rio Grande valley, much of which is barely above sea level, fear that the upper flood will spread far beyond all previous overflow marks. Greatest damage is feared to growing crops.

Red Cross relief for the flood district is under way. Hundreds of Mexicans living in Eagle Pass lowlands have lost all belongings, while at Piedras Negras, across the river, the food situation is admittedly serious.

Three aviators were despatched from Kelly field, San Antonio, yesterday to the lower Rio Grande valley for food relief work. Their instructions are to work from Camp McAllen and drop bags of food to marooned farmers, who may be found in the flood areas. Eighth corps area headquarters was expected to despatch a company of engineers with pontoons to Eagle Pass and help restore communication there with Piedras Negras, both railroad and highway bridges having been washed out.

Common Crisis Faces Miners, Rail Unions

CINCINNATI, O., June 21.—Further meetings to consider joint strike action were being planned today between leaders of the striking coal miners and the rail unions that are threatening a nation-wide rail walk-out next month. The union chiefs indicated that they expected to hold conferences here this week, to be followed by a later meeting in Chicago, where the rail leaders will canvass the strike vote next week.

A unanimity of sentiment as to the necessity of the rail strike was shown by a joint statement of President John L. Lewis, of the miners, and B. M. Jewell, head of the rail unions, issued last night after the first formal discussion of the proposed joint strike action. A policy of silence also was adopted by the union men who attended last night's meeting and after it had disbanded Mr. Jewell went into conference with lawyers.

The joint statement, which the union men said they regarded as important on account of its dual authorship, declared a "common crisis" faced both the railroad men and the miners and added "it is only natural that these workers should decide to do everything necessary to protect their separate interests."

Record Crowd Attending U. B. C. E. Convention

More Than 500 Expected To Be Here For Sessions

With close to 300 delegates and about fifty visitors in attendance, the annual convention of the United Brethren church convened last night at the local U. B. church, Seventh and Gay streets. The Tuesday night session was given over mostly to the welcoming remarks by local people, responses by a visiting officer, a short address on Christian Endeavor work and entertainment. The entertainment was furnished by the College Entertainers, musicians from Otterbein College, after which a four-in-one reception was held by the various societies of the church.

The attendance is the best of all conventions held by the Union in recent years. Practically all of the 130 churches in the Union have sent delegates and some churches have sent big delegations instead of one or two delegates.

U. B. church members have opened their homes to the delegates and visitors, but yesterday afternoon and evening when delegates registered the supply of homes did not meet the demand and calls had to be rushed to homes to provide additional sleeping quarters. By Thursday, the last day of the convention, the delegates and visitors are expected to number about 600.

Morning, afternoon and evening sessions today will be followed by three sessions tomorrow, the convention to close with Thursday night's meeting.

The Wednesday morning session opened at eight o'clock with simultaneous conferences under the following heads and leaders:

Intermediate Work—Miss Mabel Eubanks of Jackson.

Junior Work—Mrs. A. H. Morris of Circleville.

Stewardship—Rev. D. S. Mills of Ashville.

Evangelism—Rev. M. R. White of Jackson.

Citizenship and Social Purity—Rev. Laura Strawn of Roerick.

Missions—Mrs. Bessie Long of Circleville.

Quiet Hour and Life Work—Rev. H. O. Davis of Rockbridge.

Recreation and Community Service—Rev. B. E. Ewing of Hillsboro.

At nine o'clock Rev. J. B. Showers, of Dayton, a professor in the Bonebrake Theological Seminary in that city, gave a most interesting address on "Spiritual Life." Rev. Showers in his remarks urged the young people to devote more time and more of their energy to spiritual work in order that the Endeavors may give their best to the work they undertake.

Following Rev. Showers, Conference Superintendent J. H. Harris, D. D. of Westerville, gave a talk in which he made an appeal to young people to prepare themselves for responsibilities in relation to their church work and work in general.

His remarks were filled with timely facts that made a direct appeal to the large number present.

An Institute period of about forty minutes duration was directed by the Field Secretary, Rev. E. E. Harris of Dayton. An address by Miss Myrtle M. Lefever, the general intermediate and Junior Superintendent of Dayton, on the Junior and Intermediate work of the Christian Endeavor organization was greatly enjoyed. The scheduled missionary talk by Dr. J. E. Shannon had to be postponed an account of the speaker not arriving until this afternoon.

The Wednesday afternoon session started at one o'clock with the attendance bigger than last night or this morning. A number of delegates arrived on the noon trains and swelled the attendance figures.

The first part of the afternoon was given over to an intermediate and Junior program with the Portsmouth U. B. Juniors and Intermediates taking part. This was followed by an address by Miss Myrtle Lefever.

The big parade of delegates and visitors scheduled for Thursday has been called off.

Last Night's Session

Last night's session opened with Rev. P. E. Wright, of Newark, President of the Southeast Ohio Union in charge. After a short devotional service, a song service was enjoyed with Rev. B. E. Ewing of Hillsboro in charge.

Mayor William N. Gableman was introduced and he gave the first address of welcome, telling the delegates and visitors how glad the Peerless City was to have them as her guests. In his address he said:

"Mr. Chairman and Delegates: You have come to the Peerless River City for your conference and as its chief executive, I extend to you a cordial greeting.

"At the very start of my brief remarks to you, I would have you know that we have a happy, prosperous, contented Portsmouth and we are never so happy as when we have a visitor within our gates. The mayor of a municipality is called upon quite often upon occasions such as this to make an address of welcome on behalf of his city, and if he is the right sort of a fellow, and lives in a community such as ours, claiming this, then, as one of his duties, I think I am safe in stating that it is one of the most pleasant if not the most pleasant duty he is called upon to perform.

There is one handicap, however, that must not be overlooked in a matter of this kind.

"We mayors are usually present at all sorts of conventions, and, regardless of their nature, we are not supposed to sidestep any of them, in fact, just the reverse is true, for we owe it to our city and our local folks to show up.

I shall never forget my first invitation to make an address of welcome as mayor. In school I had always led my class in deportment, but on the other end when it came to oratory, so this invitation caused me considerable worry. I wrote and re-wrote and finally gave it up.

I took my case to a local friend, who is considered one of our best speakers, and he said, 'Why that's easy. Just get up and talk as if you were engaged in conversation with an individual. Be sure to have the broad smile, tell them how happy we are to see them, include a good word for Portsmouth and, above all, be brief!'

"But," he added, 'never make the same talk more than once for you will be caught red-handed.'

He then explained that our local folks, especially the newspaper boys, would become so used to the same address that they would use it themselves with the individual before you had the opportunity of springing it at the meeting.

In contemplation of your visit, and knowing some days ago that I would be with you to talk, it was, therefore, necessary for me to find something appropriate for the occasion.

Strange as it may seem, on the very day I received the invitation to come here, I received a pamphlet in the mail, in which was the following: 'Of our blessings we rejoice too much. Of our country is not going to the dogs. Throughout the land, the Church is stronger and more enthusiastic than it has been for years. The teacher, preacher and Sunday School worker are more nearly master of their task than ever before. There is greater strength and greater numbers and higher ideals in all fraternal organizations than ever before. The good in the world outweighs the bad.'

We trust that your deliberations may be most profitable and harmonious and that a delightful social intercourse may not be lacking. If there be those among you that may be unfamiliar with Portsmouth, I trust that your affairs may not be so exciting but that you may get to see the whole of our bustling and progressive city.

We're a community of working people and we think we are possessed of the milk of human kindness in just a little greater proportion than anywhere else.

We have modern factories, beautiful churches and schools, delightful suburbs and unsurpassed river scenery. If the local members of your organization have autos, and they nearly all have, accept the invitation and visit our interesting scenes.

I leave you with my earnest hope, and that of our city, that your meeting here will fulfill the highest aspirations of your noble organization, and that when you have separated your recollections of this convention will be the happiest of your memories."

Miss Edna Stroh followed Mayor Gableman and welcomed the visitors on behalf of the church. Albert Plack made the welcoming remarks on behalf of the U. B. Christian Endeavorers.

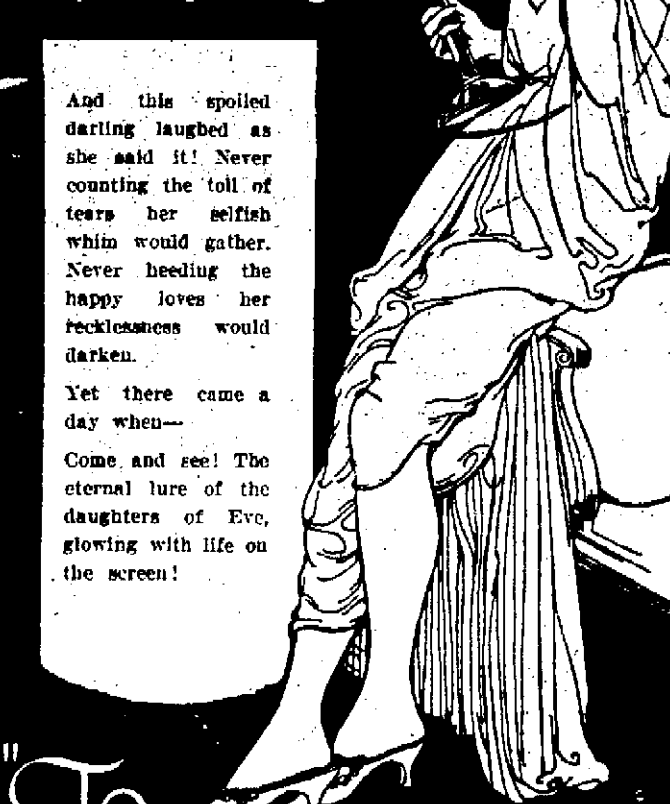

Rev. P. E. Wright, president of the Union, responded for the members who represent the various societies at the convention, saying that they are all glad to be here, and expressing the hope that the thirtieth annual meeting would be the finest, and most productive of results of any yet held.

R. C. Crosby, field secretary of the Southeast Ohio Union, gave a short address along practical lines, explaining the objectives which a good live U. B. Society should strive to attain.

The opening session was planned principally for the entertainment of the delegates and the attraction was the College Entertainers, a group of musicians from Otterbein University.

AUTO MAN ADDRESSES KIWANIS CLUB

J. S. Taylor, president of the Universal Motor Co., held forth in a twenty-five minutes' address at the weekly meeting of the Kiwanis Club at the Mary Louise, Wednesday afternoon, discussing the strides made in the automotive world. While Mr. Taylor's address was largely statistical it was very interesting and the Kiwanians were enlightened upon an industry that now ranks third in the United States. According to Mr. Taylor more than $5,500,000 worth of automobiles had been manufactured in this country, while the industry has given employment to a vast army of men and women. Mr. Taylor, of course, could not forego the opportunity of throwing a bouquet to the Ford, stating that numerically speaking, fifty-five per cent of the automobiles, pleasure cars and trucks, made in this country were the products of Henry Ford. His address was well delivered and while he had to stand a lot of good-natured kidding at the close, he more than held his own.

The members of the club will be interested in knowing that on next Wednesday, Hon. Henry T. Bannan, who is back from one of his famous bear hunts, will be the speaker and will recount his recent experiences. Every member of the club is asked to be present, for Mr. Bannan will not only have something interesting to relate but will relate it in a most interesting manner. The following Wednesday, July 5, will be known as "stunt" meeting and F. W. Sheridan has been named chairman. The fun and frolic that usually accompanies a meeting of this nature is sufficient to insure a full attendance.

Benefit Dance This Evening

What promises to be one of the most delightful dances of the season will be held tonight at the Millbrook Park pavilion for the benefit of the Community Girls' Club to carry on the club with its various expenses till next fall.

The music will be furnished by Anderson's orchestra and dancing will continue from 8:30 p. m. until midnight. Girls who wish to come in groups will be welcomed and especially provided for as the committee in charge of arrangements will see that they are properly chaperoned. Admission for couples will be $1.50, single admission $1.

This is the third of the social affairs given for the carrying on of the Community Girls' Club. Part of the members' enjoyment this summer will be week ends and holidays spent at the girls' camp at Brookside on Brush Creek. The girls go out in large groups on Saturdays, returning Sunday evening or early enough Monday morning to be in time for work. Life in the open, swamps in the creek, playing tennis or resting under the cool trees makes the girls feel rested and ready for another week of work in the hot city.

Eh You Bettors, Look What Morvich Did!

CINCINNATI, O., June 21.—Under the watchful eye of his owner, trainer and a gallery of several hundred turf fans, the great Morvich had a work-out soon after sun-up this morning at Latonia in preparation for the $50,000 special race on Saturday. The great racing machine was sent a mile and an eighth or an eighth of a mile less than he and his competitors will step in the special race.

The colt negotiated the mile and an eighth in 1:54, which figure visibly pleased both Trainer Fred Burlew and Benjamin Block, his owner. Neither would make further comment on the horse's work-out than to express extreme satisfaction.

Morvich, with 115 pounds up, did the quarter in 23 seconds; the half in 47 2-5, five eighths in 50 2-5, the three-quarters in 1:13 2-5, the mile in 1:39 2-5, and the mile and an eighth in 1:54 flat.

KIDDIES ENJOY YORK PARK PLAYGROUNDS

Kiddies couldn't stay dry for the lack of a bathing suit yesterday when the water was turned on in the pool in York Park, and so those that didn't have them, jumped in anyway, overall, shirt and all. Over a hundred youngsters enjoyed the splashing and "high diving" in the pool during the day. Those that couldn't take a dip kept the swings and sliding boards in "full swing."

POLICE NEWS

Donahay Boosters To Meet

COLUMBUS, O., June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—Headed by hands and with banners slogans of "Put Vic in Victory," Democrats supporting the candidacy of A. Vic Donahay, of New Philadelphia, for the gubernatorial nomination, will gather here tomorrow for afternoon and evening conferences. It was announced Tuesday. The primary purpose of the meeting is to perfect a state organization to work in Mr. Donahay's behalf.

Judge James G. Johnson, of Springfield, also a Democratic gubernatorial candidate, is expected to resign from the supreme bench, it was reported here today, as soon as the work of the present term of court ends, which will be in about two weeks. Should Judge Johnson resign, Governor Davis will have an opportunity to make the supreme bench again solid Republican through appointment of his successor. Johnson is the only Democrat now on the supreme bench.

The prosecution of John Wooten and Marion Logan, of 2336 Gallia street, in connection with the alleged sale of a mortgaged automobile, took a new turn Wednesday when Warren J. Hartz, manager of the Industrial Loan company, swore out a warrant for the arrest of B. D. Parsons, complainant in the Wooten and Logan cases, charging him with a similar offense in connection with the alleged sale of the same car to Wooten with intent to defraud the Loan company.

It is alleged that the Loan company held a mortgage on the Ford car at the time the sale was made to Wooten who in turn sold the machine to the Universal Motor company.

Favor More Rein For Officials

CHILLICOTHE, O., June 21.—(By the Associated Press)—Giving resident officials free rein in administration at the veterans' bureau vocational school Number 1, Camp Sherman, may be one of the first recommendations of an American Legion committee, probing affairs at the school, one of the committee members said today.

E. O. Hobbs, secretary of the American Legion rehabilitation committee of the seventh district, and J. J. Saslavsky, Columbus, assistant adjutant of the American Legion, department of Ohio, arrived Tuesday. Dr. N. H. Keller, of Cincinnati, the third member of the party, is expected today.

Investigation was decided upon by the legion, after complaints from trainees had been received. Committee members here also declared the practice of sending men to the Camp Sherman school from points far away, particularly the eastern seaboard cities, and holding them in training, under penalty of being cut off the rehabilitation lists, was "radically wrong" and would be done away with.

The committee expects to complete its probe Thursday. A complete survey of the schools will be made, members saying they are more concerned with the principle and policy of its operation than with personal complaints.

To Recruit Companies

SOCIETY

Carey Williams, captain of the local Combat Train and Paul Walker, captain of Battery B have returned from Columbus, where yesterday they successfully passed the captaincy examination before a board of Regular Army officers.

Arrangements are under way for the Combat Train about 35 strong, and carrying full marching equipment of about fifty pounds to take an over night hike. They will leave their armory opposite Flood & Blake at six o'clock Saturday evening and march to the country for a distance taking about an hour and a half, where they will pitch camp. A chaplain will be taken along and services will be held Sunday morning, a return being made that day.

Preparations are under way for recruiting both Battery B and the Combat Train to full strength right away. About 25 more men are wanted in each organization before the annual trip to Camp Knox, Louisville, which will be August 4 to August 18. A recruiting camp will be opened at an early date on Government Square.

At Camp Knox the drill period daily will be reduced to seven hours, five in the morning and two in the afternoon, the remainder of the day being free for recreation. The Combat Train will enter a ball team in the regimental contests while the Battery B boys will be represented in the boxing bouts.

New York In Turmoil Of Taxi Legislation

NEW YORK, June 21.—(By The Associated Press)—New York, a taxi riding city, is in a turmoil over legislation effective July 1, which requires every taxi owner in a city of the first class—New York, Buffalo and Rochester—to post $2,500 against judgment obtained by accidents.

The latest development came today when William H. Packard, claiming to represent owners of about 12,000 of the city's fleet of 18,000 taxicabs, filed a suit in Federal Court, attacking the constitutionality of the Taxicab Bonding act, and seeking to prevent its enforcement by District Attorney Banton and Attorney General Newton.

Upon application of Moses H. Grossman, counsel for the taxi men, Federal Judge Menton granted an order directing Mr. Banton to show cause next Friday why the new law should not be declared void.

Germans Will Finance Power Development Of The River Jordan

JERUSALEM, June 21.—Much of the material that is to be used in the work of developing the hydraulic power of the falls of the Jordan, near the Sea of Galilee, will be acquired from German firms. Their prices are said to be one-half those of British houses and considerably below those of American bidders.

The plan includes the construction of a dam on the Jordan River at the point where it issues from the Sea of Galilee; a large storage reservoir; irrigation canals and the installation of electric generating stations. American-Jewish organizations are said to be largely interested in the project.

The contract has been awarded to Puhos Rutenburg, a Russian engineer, by the British government. Mr. Rutenburg is now in the United States seeking financial support for the project. The work will involve an expenditure of $10,000,000 and the employment of 8,000 men. The Russian contractor also will undertake to draw electric power from the Aqia River to light the ancient city of Jaffa and the communities of Tel Aviv, Ramat and Petach Tikvah. He is allowed two years in which to raise the capital and start operations.

FORTUNE-A-YEAR FOR TWO FILMS, IS OFFER MADE TO SHAW

LONDON, June 21.—George Bernard Shaw has been offered $100,000 a year for five years by an American syndicate to produce two motion picture films each year. The author made this announcement himself at a dinner of the Society of Authors in London. Declaring that the cinema rights of a single story might be worth $50,000, he urged young authors not to be too ready to give concessions to cinema producers or literary promoters, among whom he said, there was unfortunately no absolute standard of honesty.

"A man who sells a table or a chair charges no more than the cost of the article plus a reasonable percentage of profit," he said, "but nothing of the kind applies to the publishing, theatrical or cinema business. The truth is the whole thing is a gamble and producers who make, perhaps, one success in 10 or 20 ventures want to make that success pay for all failures."

Grocers Will Enjoy Outing

One of the most interesting sessions of recent months was held by the members of the Portsmouth Retail Grocers Association last evening at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. Several members who had enjoyed trips to Cedar Point last week made short talks. The members also heard an address on "Cooperation Between the Farmer and Grocer," delivered by R. A. Welch of Chicago.

During the business session plans were completed for the grocers picnic to be held Thursday afternoon and evening at the Ben F. Stewart camp on the Little Scioto river. Grocers and their families not members of the Association are invited to join in the outing. Anyone not having a means of transportation should call Harry Knost. The picnic is for grocers and their families and the only requirement is a well filled lunch basket. The camp is on the south bank of the Little Scioto river just opposite the Narrows.

U. N. Smith, E. N. Kern, Harry Knost and Bernard Sommer form the outing committee. The annual picnic of the Association will be held later.

FIRE IN HOLY RED EEMER BASEMENT

The companies from three fire stations made hurry runs to the Holy Redeemer church, Gallia and Offshore streets, shortly after nine o'clock Tuesday evening in response to an alarm which was turned in following discovery of a fire in the basement. The blaze which started in a barrel of trash was quickly extinguished and no damage was entailed to the property. An investigation by the firemen failed to reveal the origin of the fire.

The presence of the fire equipment near the edifice caused much excitement in the vicinity and in a few minutes a big crowd gathered but dispersed quickly when the ladders announced the blaze had been put out.

WILL HOLD PARCEL POST SALE

On Thursday evening, June 22, in the basement of First Christian church a very unique program and parcel post sale has been planned by the Loyal Daughters class of the city.

In the first place, some weeks ago the members of the class began collecting parcels by mail for this event and each parcel is guaranteed to be worth a quarter of a dollar or more. These parcels are numbered and the purchaser buys the number getting the parcel with which his number corresponds. The novelty of making a quarter purchase "sight unseen" appeals to most folks and there is but twenty-five cents involved in the transaction, we are all content to take a shot at it.

The program, this is said to be one which has no superior, and we doubt if any equals. It is called "extreme" and (with emphasis on the extreme), it is said those who attend will have an extremely good time.

As an example of some of the numbers an extremely fat lady will accompany an extremely thin one in an extremely fine solo on an extremely fine guitar. Another extremely thin one will sing an extremely poor duet, go on tonight to have a solid tank. But it's the truth. Then an extremely young lady will be matched with one on the other extreme and so on until—well, until the sides of those who hear are extremely sore.

The price of admission is extremely low amounting to the small sum of ten cents, one tenth of a dollar, and the refreshments will be extremely good, and free, while the invitation is extremely broad, including the entire city, county, state, nation and Kentucky. Folks didn't seem to know about it, nor how extremely funny it would be and that's why this extremely foolish article is written to say that at 7:30 sharp and from that till 10:00 sharp, there will be one glorious, hilarious and extremely enjoyable time in the basement of First Christian tomorrow night, and the Loyal Daughters will be extremely glad, tickled to pieces if you will be there and enjoy it all.

COLUMBUS, O., June 21.—Enthusiastic reports of agricultural conditions were brought back to Columbus today by E. J. Colgan, who has just completed a tour of 17 counties, including Scioto, in Southern and Eastern Ohio. Mr. Colgan, who is connected with a limestone products company in Columbus, has been making a study of soil conditions and, in connection with Prof. E. E. Barnes of Ohio State University, has been looking after the establishment of limestone blins in different sections of the state. There will be a good crop of wheat, he said. This is rapidly ripening. He found very little smut. Corn is doing well although in some places planting was delayed by the early spring rains. Many of the counties are planning the construction of limestone blins, in which the limestone may be stored so that it will be available for the farmer to haul home with him on his return trips from town. Plans are now under way for construction of such a bin at Haverhill in Scioto county.

NAME RECREATIONAL DIRECTOR FOR N. & W.

Word has been received in Portsmouth of the appointment of Dr. C. H. Hagenbush, of New York, as System Health and Recreational Director of the Norfolk and Western Railroad, with headquarters at Roanoke, Va.

This is a new enterprise for the Norfolk and Western Railroad Company, although it has been worked out on several other large railway systems, notably the Pennsylvania. While the work on the N. & W. will be somewhat similar to that on other systems, it will differ from them in several respects.

Facts On Muscle Shoals Distorted Charges Kearns And Seven Associates

WASHINGTON, June 21—Eight Republican members of the House military committee yesterday signed a report, submitted to the House by Representative Kearns of Ohio, denouncing Henry Ford's offer to purchase and lease the government's projects at Muscle Shoals, Alabama. Their action increased to four the number of reports emanating from the committee and marked another division of opinion among the 21 members over the question of Muscle Shoals disposition.

The eight members were representatives Kearns, Ohio; Morin, Crago and Ransley, Pennsylvania; Crowder, New York; Hill, Maryland; Parker, New Jersey and Frothingham, Massachusetts.

None of the signatories to the new report was willing for Congress to accept the Ford offer either as recommended recently by the so-called majority views presented by acting Chairman McKenzie, or by those who endorsed the report written by Representative Wright, Democrat, Georgia, asking the acceptance of Mr. Ford's proposal unconditionally.

The third opinion drafted by Representative Parker, Republican, New Jersey and endorsed by Representative Frothingham, Republican, Massachusetts, both of whom signed the Kearns report today, was in effect, merged with the new report.

The Kearns report stressed the importance of getting "to the country a clear, fair and unbiased statement of facts" concerning the Ford proposal; declared that "wicked" and "paid" propagandists were "scattering propaganda throughout the country that is often told of truth" and attacked the Ford offer in a way that left none of its provisions free from hostile criticism.

Favors Power Company
At the same time the report asserted that the Alabama Power company, which submitted an offer to develop the power projects at Muscle Shoals, had "always dealt fairly with the government and was offering $2,500,000 for its interests in the steam plant at Gorgas, in accordance with the terms of the contract executed with the War Department when the plant was erected."

A tabulation of "the entire cost to the tax payers of the United States of the Muscle Shoals project up to the present time was presented showing a total of $167,163,206, including $13,320,000 for interest on new money required at dams two and three.

Ford's Personal Word
"Some say that Mr. Ford is honest," the report declared, "and some say he said he wants to make fertilizer and they are willing to take him at his word, whether it is in the contract or not. What they say about Mr. Ford is not endowed with a perpetual life, although some members of the military affairs committee would give him this water power lease in perpetuity."

"Mr. Ford cannot live throughout considerable part of the term of this water power lease hold, and when he is gone and all the men that he may have surrounding him will have passed away we do not know into what unconscionable hands this plant will fall and neither does any man know who is living today."

LEE FOHL IS F OXY OLD BIRD
ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 21—(By The Associated Press)—Lee Fohl, who resigned as manager of the Cleveland Indians in 1919, today has the St. Louis Browns in first place, but refuses to venture a prediction as to whether the local Americans will win the pennant as claimed by St. Louis fans.

Expecting a hard tussle with the New York Yankees and the Detroit Tigers for the top rung, Fohl declared the Browns are getting some of the breaks and that the machine is running smoothly.

Ability to develop star players and remarkably good judgment in switching his batting order to obtain the best results are held responsible for Fohl's success with the Browns. According to Fohl, the team's batting is second to none and superior to most teams; the pitching is average; the infield is strong; the outfield is good and the club's fleetness of foot ranks with the swiftest.

Ft. Ricker, nestled in quiet in the shade made possible by the maples that lined the sidewalks around the county bastille. It paid no attention to the trees, their boughs and their breezes. They failed to stir the old fort, which fast showed age and which frequently suffered with rheumatic pains. There was only one tree in all the forests of the land that frightened Ft. Ricker. That was the tall Sycamore of Mt. Tabor. That tree was a regular lion in its roarings and a perfect cyclone in its work of destruction. It was dreaded by Ft. Ricker, lest it should swoop down and utterly destroy. The wood and carving reporter, in conjunction with the court reporter of the Times, got hold of a piece of the tall Sycamore of Mt. Tabor and submitted it to a botanical test along war ideas. The grains were regular game cocks. There was a spur on every one of them and they flew up in fighting attitude at the mere mention of the name of Ricker. An astrologer was consulted. He cast a horoscope and predicted that the tall sycamore would satter the foundation of Ft. Ricker and bury the ruins in the graveyard.

In the L. O. O. F. temple, Fifth and Court streets, the Odd Fellows of the city and their auxiliary, the Fair Rebekahs, held memorial services in memory of their dead—those of their fellowship who served their time in the ranks of life and sunk to rest guided by the all-seeing eye and the links of "Friendship, Love and Truth." Since the preceding memorial these members of Scioto Lodge died: Brothers James Crain, James Marconet, Samuel S. Boyles, R. S. Sileo, August Riel and Thomas Rogers.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Miss Dolly Wise—I am writing you for information which I would like for you to answer as soon as possible. Does a person have to get a license or permit to carry a gun in a machine? If he does not have it on his person? And if he had one in Ohio, would he be allowed to carry a gun in any other state?

THANK YOU.

You can carry a gun in the pocket of your machine, but don't forget and put it in the pocket of your coat. The law says you cannot carry concealed weapons on your person.

Dear Miss Dolly—Will you please print a recipe for Butterscotch pie? My husband likes Butterscotch pie almost as well as he likes me.

YOUNG BRIDE.

Two eggs, one cup brown sugar, lump of butter the size of a walnut, one level tablespoon of flour, a little salt. Save whites of eggs for meringue, which is made as follows: Beat whites until dry with a wire beater, add gradually two table-spoons of powdered sugar, beat and throw in slightly, two more table-spoons of sugar. Put this on top of pie and slightly brown in oven.

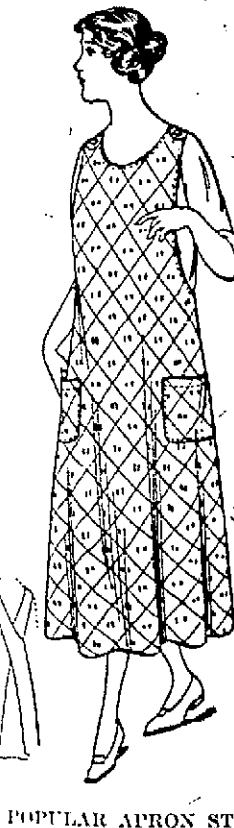

Dear Miss Dolly—We are two girls and our beaus want to take us up to Huntington to dance some time soon, but our parents do not want us to go. We will go on the evening train and come back on the morning train, but they won't let us do that. Do you think there is any harm in doing anything like that? We are 19.

THE TWO GIRLS.

There might not be any harm in it, but I think your mother is right in saying that you cannot go. You are too young to be going out of town to dance. There is always the possibility of missing the last car, then you probably would have to go to a hotel for the night, and you can imagine the gossip it would cause, if you got stranded up there.

Dear Miss Wise—I think it a shame that women have to put up with conditions such as the wife who had a letter in your column Monday night. Why don't the city officials get busy and get rid of moonshine hooch and every other form of intoxicants here in the county? Also why don't these dry leaders who are going around making speeches do something? We need action and not so many speeches. We all know the liquor is here and is being sold. No one has to tell us that. What we need is some one big enough to stop it. If something isn't done pretty soon the women ought to hold a mass meeting and decide to do something themselves.

INDIGNANT WOMAN.

The woman who wrote that letter lives in Kentucky, but the same thing is going on right in our esteemed midst all the time. I agree with you that we need action.

Dear Miss Dolly—Are eye-lashes in style now? If so, are they wearing them long or short? What will make the lashes long? Also what will make them slightly curved on the ends?

STYLISH GIRL.

Eye-winkers will always be in style, but some of the young fashion-plates are plucking their brows out ever so often, and making a half-line stripe with a pencil where the brows are supposed to be. You can make them grow by putting vasoline on them, but this is difficult to do without getting it into the eyes. You can also cure them slightly by closing the eye and folding them back, but if I were you I would let them alone.

Dear Dolly—I am thinking about joining the navy and would like to know how old you have to be before you can join? How long do you have to serve and when would you get a furlough?

V. S.

Enlistments in the navy were stopped for awhile, but I noticed by the paper the other day where they would receive enlistments again up until July first. I suppose you will have to apply to the nearest recruiting office. There is one in Columbus, also in Cincinnati. You might file your applications with them or write for particulars, etc.

Dear Miss Wise—Do you know of anything that is good for dandruff? I am troubled so much with it that it looks like snow or confetti falling every time I comb my hair.

Adventures Of The Twins

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

"Say, is that what's wrong?" asked Wally.

"HOW do you do?" said Nancy and Nick when Wally Woodchuck opened his front door in answer to their knock.

"Well, well, well!" cried Wally. "If you're not a sight for sore eyes! Where have you been and what have you been doing since you were here last spring with Mr. Tinkling, the fairy landlord, to collect my rent?"

"We've been on the Moon," replied Nick. "But the Moon-Man, old Mr. Peeraboot, is lost and we're hunting for him."

"Say, is that what's wrong?" asked Wally. "I wondered! Who's running it now?"

"Mr. Sprinkle-Blow, the Weather-man, until we find Mr. Peeraboot," explained Nick. "But old Comet-Legs, a wicked fairy, would like to be Moon-Man, and he's doing all he can to spoil things. Why?"

"Well, I'll tell you," said Wally. "Last night my wife was putting the babies to sleep and she sang a song like this:

"Oh, hush-a-bye, my little ground diggers,

With woolken fur and nice fat little fingers.

All cuddly and warm, and as round as the Moon.

As it sails through the sky from July unto June."

"Suddenly, our youngest, Wozzkins said, 'Mama, why do you sing to us all the time about the Moon being round? It was square last night.'"

"We thought he'd been dreaming, but he said he wasn't. He said he'd awakened in the night and the Moon was as square as a soap-box."

Nancy looked at Nick and Nick looked at Nancy, their eyes as round as saucers.

"Oh, thank you for telling us," said Nancy. "Old Comet-Legs must have put the Weatherman out, too! He said he'd turn the Moon square the minute he got a chance. Good-by, Mr. Woodchuck."

Off to the Moon sailed Nancy and Nick and on the way they met Mr. Sprinkle-Blow riding on his umbrella. "I was just going to look for you," he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Griggs of 1724 Grandview avenue entertained last evening their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher of Braddock, Pa.

Mrs. Henry Prouch of Seventeenth street and Mrs. Laura Walker of Dewey avenue were guests Wednesday of Mrs. Louise Wente and Mrs. Lillian Knapp of Longwood, Sciotoville.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Moore (Grace Henry), a recent bride and groom, entertained informally last evening at their home on Rhodes avenue, New Boston, their guests being the girls employed in the Times office and a few friends. The rooms were beautifully decorated with sweet peas and roses and the evening was spent in playing games, music and singing.

Mr. Robert Poole, who is a very clever magician, entertained the guests with juggling, "stunts" and tricks, and various other, parlor, games. Miss Roberta Albright rendered several pleasing vocal selections, while Roy Cather performed on the ice cream freezer. Roy is an adept when it comes to making ice cream, and was voted the champion ice cream maker in New Boston after the guests had sampled his frozen concoction. At the close of the evening Mr. and Mrs. Moore served delicious ice cream and cake. The table and buffet were decorated with crystal baskets of sweet peas and places were marked for twelve.

A feature of the evening was the old-fashioned helling tendered the newly-weds by the "boys" of New Boston. They turned out en masse with all the tin-jams, buckets and tubs in the village. After an hour's concert on these deafening instruments, and the usual "treat" from the groom, the bellers disbanded.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Truitt of Wilmington, Ohio, who have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kratzer, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bihman, Sr., left yesterday for Chicago to visit Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Darragh (Mayne Bihman).

Mrs. J. P. Smith will entertain her Sunday School class of Trinity church Thursday afternoon at her home, 516 Union street. A full attendance is urged.

Miss Gertrude Jane Lynd and Cecil C. Minard, a popular young couple of Ironton, were married last evening at eight o'clock at the home of the bride in that city by Rev. P. A. Cross of the Immanuel church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lynd and has been a teacher in the public schools of Ironton for several years. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lynd and daughters, Rosemary, and Veline Jean of this city.

The American husband can defy his father-in-law, once he gets his bride. But in Lapland this is not so. He must serve his father-in-law for one year after the marriage.

SCARAMOUCHE

by Rafael Sabatini

BEGIN HERE TODAY
Idealistic and sensitive, PHILIPPE DE VILMORIN, divinity student, was filled with horror when he learned of the brutal shooting of the peasant Mabey, discovered poaching on the estate of the great noble, the

MARQUIS DE LA TOUR D'AZER. With his young lawyer friend, ANDRE-LOUIS MOREAU, he appealed for justice to the rough but good-hearted

QUINTIN DE KERCADIOU, Lord of Gavrilac, who is popularly believed to be the father of Andre-Louis. The Marquis was present at the interview and Andre-Louis learned with horror that he was suing for the hand of the young and beautiful ALINE DE KERCADIOU, the niece of Gavrilac. At the request of the Marquis the discussion of the death of Mabey is continued in the fun. There was something sinister in the Marquis' attitude which made Andre-Louis fear for Philippe.

GO ON WITH THE STORY
"It seems, monsieur, that I must refresh your memory." The Marquis directly faced M. de Vilmorin. "You spoke, monsieur—and you spoke very eloquently, too eloquently almost, it seemed to me—of the infamy of such a deed as the act of summary justice upon this thieving fellow Mabey. Infamy was the precise word you used. You did not retract that word when I had the honor to inform you that it was by my honors that my gamekeeper Benet proceeded as he did."

M. de Vilmorin's fine face wore a look of perplexity. He did not understand the drift of this.

"It occurs to me, M. le Marquis, in view of your readiness to assume responsibility, that you must believe in some justification for the deed which is not apparent to myself."

"That is better. That is distinctly better." The Marquis took snuff delicately, dusting the fragments from the fine lace at his throat. "When I tell you that for months past I have been annoyed by similar depredations, you will perhaps understand that it had become necessary to employ a deterrent sufficiently strong to put an end to them. And there is more than that. It is not the poaching that annoys me so much as the contempt for my absolute and inalienable rights. There is, monsieur, as you cannot fail to have observed, an evil spirit of insubordination in the air, and there is one only way in which to meet it. To tolerate it, in however slight a degree, to show leniency, however leniently disposed, would entail having recourse to still harsher measures tomorrow. If anything in what I have said is still obscure to you, I refer you to the game laws, which your lawyer friend there will expound for you at need."

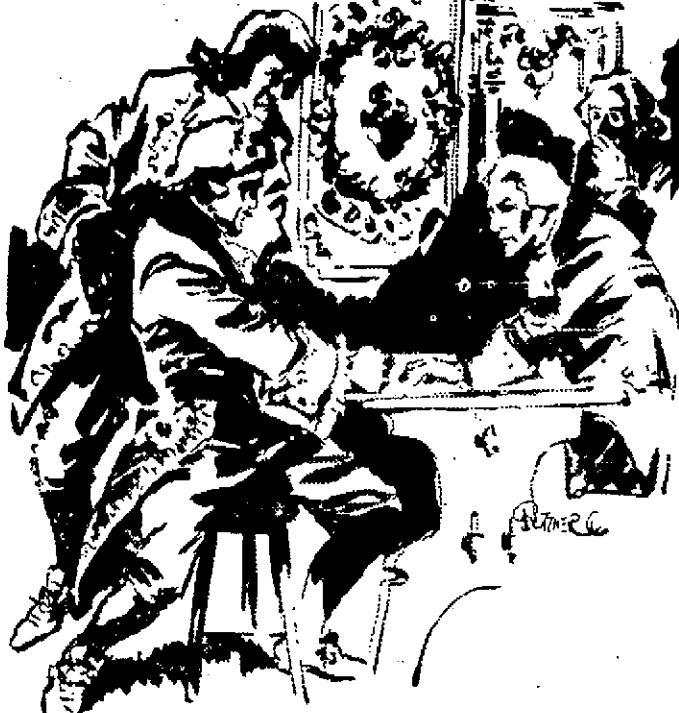

"Are there in the world no laws but game laws?" he demanded, angrily. "Have you never, by any chance heard of the laws of humanity?"

The Marquis sighed wearily. "What have I to do with the laws of humanity?" he wondered.

M. de Vilmorin looked at him a moment in speechless amazement. "Nothing, M. le Marquis. That is—alas!—too obvious. I hope you will remember it in the hour when you may wish to appeal to those laws which you now deride."

"Of your charity, spare me a sermon, M. l'abbé!"

"You mock, monsieur. You laugh. Will you laugh, I wonder, when God presents his reckoning to you for the blood and plunder with which your hands are full?"

do you think in your pride that France, this job among the nations, will suffer it forever?

"Do you see nothing of the gathering clouds that herald the coming of the storm? The Third Estate, which you despise, will make an end of this canker of privilege that is devouring the vitals of this unfortunate country."

"M. l'abbé," said the Marquis, "you have a very dangerous gift of eloquence. I can conceive of men being swayed by it. Had you been born a gentleman, you would not so easily have acquired those false views that you express."

M. de Vilmorin stared blankly, uncomprehending.

"Had I been born a gentleman, do you say?" quoth he, in a slow, bewildered voice. "But I was born a gentleman. My race is as old, my blood as good as yours, monsieur."

"You have been deceived in that, I fear."

WISE WOMEN

A famous medical man of ancient times states regarding his writings that they were but a collection of knowledge obtained from the "Wise Women."

Do you realize that in those times the women, and not the men, knew about the healing properties of medicinal plants, roots and herbs? From the earliest times, women had a knowledge of the treatment of disease and of the healing merit of roots and herbs.

Lydla E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was originated by a woman, Lydla E. Pinkham, and is now known and praised by women of all ages. It is prepared from roots and herbs having medicinal action of great value in the treatment of troubles women so often have.—Advertisement.

"Deceived?"

"Your sentiments betray the indiscretion of which madame your mother must have been guilty."

The brutally affronting words were sped beyond recall.

A dead silence followed. Andre-Louis' wits were numbed. He stood aghast, all thought suspended in him, what time M. de Vilmorin's eyes continued fixed upon M. de la Tour d'Azar's, as if searching there for a meaning that eluded him. Quite suddenly he understood the vile affront. The blood leapt to his face, fire blazed in his gentle eyes. A convulsive quiver shook him. Then, with an inarticulate cry, he leaped forward, and with his open hand struck M. le Marquis full and hard upon his sneering face.

In a flash M. de Chabrilane was on his feet, between the two men. Too late Andre-Louis had seen the trap. La Tour d'Azar's words were but as a move in a game of chess, calculated to exasperate his opponent into some such counter-move as this—a counter-move that left him entirely at the other's mercy.

M. le Marquis looked on, very white save where M. de Vilmorin's finger-prings began slowly to color his face; but he said nothing more. Instead, it was M. de Chabrilane who now did the talking, taking up his preconcerted part in this vile game.

"You realize, monsieur, what you have done," said he, coldly, to Philippe. "And you realize, of course, what must inevitably follow."

M. de Vilmorin had realized nothing. The poor young man had acted upon impulse, upon the instinct of decency and honor, never counting the consequence. But he realized them now at the sinister revelation of M. de Chabrilane, and if he desired to avoid these consequences, it was out of respect for his priestly vocation, which strictly forbade such adjustments of disputes as M. de Chabrilane was clearly thrusting upon him.

He drew back. "Let one affront wipe out the other," said he, in a dull voice. "The balance is still in M. le Marquis' favor. Let that content him."

"Impossible." The Chevalier's lips came together tightly. Thereafter he was suavity itself, but very firm. "A blow has been struck, monsieur. Your action would seem to confirm the assumption that you found so offensive. But it does not on that account render you immune from the consequences."

"I desire no immunity," flashed back the young seminarist, stung by this fresh goad.

"But he does not wear a sword, monsieur!" cried Andre-Louis, aghast.

"That is easily amended. He may have the loan of mine."

"I mean, monsieur," Andre-Louis insisted, between fear for his friend and indignation, "that it is not his habit to wear a sword, that he has never worn one, that he is untutored in its use. He is a seminarist—a postulant for holy orders, already half a priest, and so forbidden from such an engagement as you propose."

"All that he should have remembered before he struck a blow," said M. de Chabrilane, politely.

"The blow was deliberately provoked," raged Andre-Louis. Then he recovered himself, though the other's haughty stare had no part in that recovery. "O my God, I talk in vain! How is one to argue against a purpose formed! Come away, Philippe. Don't you see the trap?"

M. de Vilmorin cut him short, and flung him off. "Be quiet, Andre. M. le Marquis is entirely in the right."

"M. le Marquis is in the right!" Andre-Louis let his arms fall helplessly. This man he loved above all other living men was caught in the snare of the world's insanity. He was baring his breast to the knife for the sake of a vague, distorted sense of honor due to himself.

CHAPTER IV
WITHIN a few minutes, all arrangements were concluded and that sinisterly intentioned little group of four assembled in the afternoon sunshine on the bowling-green behind the inn.

There were no formalities over measurements of blades or selection of ground. M. le Marquis removed his sword-belt and scabbard, but declined—not considering it worth while for the sake of so negligible an opponent—to divest himself either of his shoes or his coat. Tall, lithe and athletic, he stood to face the no less tall, but very delicate and frail, M. de Vilmorin. The latter also declined to make any of the usual preparations.

MAGNESIA FINE FOR ACID STOMACH

Quickly Neutralizes Acidity, Stops Fermentation, Sweetens the Stomach

Nine people in ten, when food upsets the stomach causing "distress," think they have indigestion. In reality they are suffering from "acid stomach." An excess of acid in the stomach causes gas, heartburn, bloating and sourness.

To have a strong healthy stomach capable of easily and normally digesting three hearty meals a day you simply must keep these stomach acids neutralized and the stomach contents sweet. No artificial digestants are necessary. Just a few ounces of Bismuth Magnesia from any good drug store and take a teaspoonful of the powder right after eating or whenever the slightest pain is felt. The result is amazing and you will be delighted with the almost instant relief it brings.

This famous stomach sweetener combines Magnesia and Bismuth in desirable proportions and is not only splendidly effective but perfectly harmless. Its regular use keeps the stomach sweet, strong and healthy all the time.

The following account from the Ashland Independent will be of interest to friends of the bride in this city. As she was recently here to attend the P. H. S. commencement exercises, the guest of Miss Page Geer, who was one of the bridesmaids.

One of the prettiest quiet weddings of the season took place on Saturday evening when Miss Ruth Kilbourne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Kilbourne and Clarence Wesley Dawson were united in marriage at the home of the bride on East Greenup avenue.

The house was decorated with a profusion of spring flowers and similar forming a lovely setting for the ceremony. Festoons of the smilax were draped to the chandelier forming a canopy under which the bridal party stood. Miss Minnie Winder of Marysville played Lohengrin's Wedding March for the entrance of the bride and during the ceremony softly played "The Roseary."

The bride entered with her bridesmaids, Miss Lola Troutout and Miss Page Geer of Portsmouth. Miss Troutout was charmingly attired in an orchid organdie and carried an arm bouquet of sunburst roses. Miss Geer wore an exceedingly becoming rose organdie and carried pink roses. The bride, an attractive and lovely type of soft southern beauty, wore a fluffy white organdie which enhanced her charm. She carried an exquisite shower bouquet of the bride's roses and valley lilies. The bride and her attendants were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his groomsmen, Henry Martin and John McGlosson. They were attired in conventional street suits.

The ever beautiful ring service was impressively read by Dr. D. W. Scott, pastor of the First Christian church.

Immediately following the ceremony an informal reception was held. Delicious punch was served, with Miss Eunice Kaut presiding. Ices, in fancy shapes and bride's cake regaled the guests. The usual symbols were enclosed in the huge cake. Miss Troutout receiving the wishbone, Mrs. Doris Coburn, the thimble and Wm. Scott, the button.

During the reception Mr. and Mrs. Dawson eluded the merry-makers and slipped away to Huntington whence they left yesterday for Washington, New York and other Eastern points for their wedding trip. They will return to South Ashland to make their home.

Application blanks for heirs-at-law of deceased ex-service men who may have been entitled to Ohio Adjusted Compensation, have been furnished and can be secured at the Probate office.

Due to the familiarity of Probate judges with work of this nature, and in order to obviate the necessity and expense of having an administrator appointed in each case, arrangements have been made with the Probate judge in each county, whereby these bonus forms will be executed free of charge to all claimants. Persons desiring to file claim for the bonus should take all official papers in their possession, such as the deceased veteran's discharge certificate, death certificate, official notification of death from the War Department, etc., to the office of the Probate judge in the Court House. It is absolutely necessary for the claimant to appear in person as the affidavit must be executed before the Probate judge or his deputy.

So far four applications have been filed at the local Probate office. Officials estimate that about fifty such claims will be filed in Scioto county.

Rogers Extradited
Bernard Rogers, 35 years old, arrested at Maysville, Ky., under an indictment returned against him by a Scioto county grand jury charging non-support, was returned to this city for trial by Sheriff E. E. Ricey Tuesday midnight. The refusal of the accused to return to Ohio required the sheriff to secure extradition papers to bring him back.

Wife Granted Divorce
On the grounds of neglect and cruelty, Eva C. Reece, of Nauvoo, was granted a decree by Judge Thomas in Common Pleas court Wednesday, divorcing her from Joseph K. Reece, former railroad brakeman of Keystone, W. Va., whose present whereabouts are unknown.

They were married in October, 1920, after a courtship of but two months and the plaintiff told the court that Reece not only failed to furnish her a home but assaulted and beat her and even failed to support her during the few months she lived with him. She stated that the defendant deserted her at Keystone, W. Va., in April, 1921, and joined the U. S. navy when she and their infant child has lived with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Martin in Nauvoo.

The court in granting the decree advised the plaintiff to be more careful in choosing a husband in the future. She was represented by Attorney Geo. W. Sheppard.

Picnic On July Fourth

A big Sunday School picnic is planned for Mittenford's Grove at South Webster July Fourth. There will be plenty of music, athletic stunts and speakers. There will be a double header ball game and several of the speakers will be from Portsmouth.

Race Tights
Troop 15 of Boy Scouts won a very exciting game from Troop 3 yesterday evening at York Park. This tightens the race for the pennant in the Boy Scout League considerably. The game was tied up to the seventh inning and an extra inning was necessary to decide the game. A walk and a hit were the deciding factors for the winners. Evans pitched a very consistent game for the winners, striking out many of the strong hitters for Troop 3. His fielders gave him good support and contributed their share to the victory. "Shorty" Deonbeck pitched for the losers and did good work for his team but the Troop 1 aggression was too much for him.

Is Real Mechanic
J. I. Toy, a first class mechanic and who has worked eight years in the Reo and Chandler plants, has taken charge of the service department in E. O. Ruhlman's Chillicothe street garage. Mr. Ruhlman will devote all of his time to selling machines as with his repair department in charge of an expert, he will have plenty of time to hunt up prospects.

Mr. Shriver Here
J. A. Shriver, of Manchester, was in the city yesterday looking after his campaign for state senator. Adams county has not had a state senator for 27 years, he stated.

SCOTOVILLE SCOUTS HOLD RALLY

The Boy Scouts of Sciotoville held a rally last night at the Christian church to celebrate the winning of the pennant and other awards they have captured during the past six months. Troop 11 of Sciotoville leads all other troops of the city in the number of pennants won this year, having captured three so far.

Scout Executive Gillman gave a short talk on "The Fundamentals of Scouting," after which he presented the awards.

Scouts Louis Walden and Harry Willis were awarded their second class pins. Scouts Louis Reinhardt, Russell Cook, Ward Halstead, Joseph Sloan and Geo. Reinhard were awarded their first class pins. Two of these Scouts are only waiting for their six months to be up to become Life and Star Scouts. Those who had taken merit badges in the last six months were, Scoutmaster Reinhardt, Assistant Scoutmasters F. W. and H. L. Reinhardt, Scoutmaster Urick, Donald Dever, Chas. Boyd, Oulus Odell, Richard Turner, Ted Haquard, Joseph Sloan, Louis Reinhardt, Ward Halstead, Richard Rowley and Geo. Reinhardt, were duly presented with them.

But the crowning feature of the evening was the presenting of one silver medal awarded by the Portsmouth Local Council for saving the life of a comrade, to Erman Brown. A smaller boy last summer started to swim the Little Scioto, but his strength gave out while in the middle and he went under. Scout Erman Brown swam to his rescue and brought him safely to shore, in recognition of which act, the Scout Executive planned a silver medal on his breast.

JOHNNY COUCH HOLDS BOSTON TO TWO HITS; REDS DEFEAT CLIMBING BRAVES, 2 TO 0

Moran Men Scored Winning Run On Hard, Clean Hitting

BOSTON, June 21.—Couch of Cincinnati held Boston to two hits Tuesday, Cincinnati winning 2 to 0. Singles by Caveney, Pinelli and Dauterbach and Burns sacrifice fly in the fifth gave Cincinnati its two runs. Not until the eighth did a Boston man reach first. In that inning Cruise and Ford singled. A bachelard catch by Burns in the ninth off Nixon was one feature of Cincinnati's brilliant defense.

The story of the game is the story of the fifth when the Reds chased across the only two runs that were made. Here it is:

Fifth Inning—Caveney singled to left. So did Pinelli. Caveney taking third. Couch fanned. Burns flied to Nixon, scoring Caveney. Dauterbach singled to left, scoring Pinelli. Duncan flied to Christenbury. Two runs, three hits, no errors.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

CLEVELAND, O., June 21.—After losing eight games in a row, New York finally broke its disastrous streak Tuesday, winning from Cleveland 6 to 5. Uhl was driven from the box in the third inning, while Morton's poor support allowed New York to score three more runs. Bush was effective in the places, until the eighth when Jones replaced him and retired the side with the bases filled. The game was full of wrangling over decisions of Umpires Dineen and Nathan. CHICAGO, June 21.—Urban Faber weakened in the 13th inning Tuesday and Sam Rice started a rally by stretching a single into a double, which enabled Washington to score three runs, defeating Chicago 9 to 6. The game was one of the hardest fought on the local diamond this season. Score:

THE TEST WITH THEM

As such fragmentary discussions as men have of politics, nowadays, the most frequent observation is that the primary has degenerated the quality of candidates offering and there is no use to go to the polls because there is no real choice to be made.

As every man and woman, too, for that matter, of legal age, has the right to vote at a primary it would seem that the fault for this condition, if it does exist, rests elementally with them. They do not choose the best aspirants, else the contest would not be absorbed altogether by the unfit.

Like any other political issue this one is not to be settled by assertion or argument. Test and result are the only determinates. And the people of Ohio will soon have the test put to them in a form from which there will be no escape. Both parties have several aspirants for governor. As partisans all may be good men and true, but as proper material for administrators of the affairs of a great state like Ohio there is a vast difference between them.

It is singular that on either side there is one aspirant who stands out distinctly as possessing those peculiar talents that should go into every public office, a desire and inflexible purpose to serve the people first and make all else subservient to that end. These two men are Vic Donahey, Democrat, and C. L. Knight, Republican. Neither is hide-bound to his party, so that his first and chief counsel will not be with the politicians, as to whether this or that will be better for the public. Rather does each possess a sort of inborn antipathy to the partisan machine, nor will he be obligated to it in anyway, if elected. Therefore will he be in the best position to serve the state and the state alone.

The August primaries will show, in its attitude towards them, whether the voters themselves care most for the general welfare or the success of the party.

MEANS WHAT IT SAYS

WHILE back, commenting on the ruling of a Lucas county court, that the law, prescribing that all ballots should be marked, in the voting, with a lead pencil, was not mandatory in nature, but merely directory, this paper remarked that it was neither good law, nor good sense.

It is now happy to say that in this position it has been sustained in most unexpected and as well as final quarter. The supreme court of the state, on appeal, holds that the law means just what it says and ballots must be marked exactly as it directs, otherwise they are void.

In a way this is getting back to first principles. The object of the so-called Australian ballot law is to secure secrecy in voting and to place obstruction in the way of hoodlums. To these ends it provides that all ballots must be marked in a single and certain way, so that there may be no distinguishment as to who cast them. In the Lucas county case there was no such observance. The single ballot contested was marked with ink. By counting it the Socialist candidate would have been beaten. Thrown out he stands in a tie. For this fact the decision of the supreme court becomes more efficacious, because it is robbed of any cast of prejudice in the popular mind, as all judgments of tribunals would be accepted, if they were always free from quibbling and effort to force the court into purely legislative functions.

THE WORLD ON WHEELS

THE talk runs that nearly every little patch of woods along the roads, leading out of the city, had its party of picnickers, Sunday.

That tells the story of how the automobile has changed the habits and lives of the people. A generation ago there used to be awful scandal created by Sunday base ball and every once in awhile there was loud protest against the operation of street cars, but now everybody takes aweel, on the first day of the week, and there are none left to defend and preserve "our American Sabbath."

However, that isn't the point in our mind. Our thought, as we meandered along the road, was of the immense change that had come in the scale of living, since the advent of the automobile. Many cars were seen that it was known had come or were going a hundred miles. The trip would cost $10, $15, $25, yet no thought was given to that feature, but how often a few years back did a whole party think it could afford a railway journey to Chillicothe, every month or so, though the expense wouldn't be half as great as the common Sunday adventures?

They tell us the difference is that the world has become more restless than it ever was. We hardly agree with that. It is just human nature to be on the go, to go faster all the time. The automobile furnishes outlet for that desire. It is so convenient, it comes right to our door and all you have to do is to hop in and be off in a jiffy.

Figuring on the cost can be considered some other time.

ALL THE WORLD AKIN

THERE has been much said of late about the flapper. It seems to be the common opinion that she is a development of the times, said to be all away.

Nothing of the sort is she for, as a matter of fact she is but a reversion back to type with such variation as difference in environment and near antecedents may account for.

If you think to the contrary read this bit of gossip about writers to be found in a current literary leaflet, bearing in mind that one of the so-called oldest races of men inhabit the South Sea islands and customs there are not of a day, nor yet of a generation, but of centuries:

"That there is a type of young girl and chap which corresponds to our flapper and flapper is the latest information from the South Seas. It is volunteered by James Norman Hall, author of 'Percy Lands of the South Seas' who just returned there after a brief visit to the United States. Speaking of these South Sea types Mr. Hall writes: 'They hang around the Chinese stores in the district, just as the flapper and flapper hang about the drug store out in the smaller towns in the States. But instead of treating his girl to an ice cream soda, the young chap opens a can of bully beef, or stakes her to a tin of salmon. However, there is a great difference between the island flapper and the American flapper. The former wears long skirts, and she has very little to say.'

As near as we can get at it there is as sorry amount of muddling about Washington, these torrid days, as there was sometime before.

Germany wasn't going to pay, but she has paid. Give her half a chance and she'll pay well enough to satisfy even France.

Had those cloudbursts up to the north been scattered over the state it would have been a fair and beneficent distribution.

RAHAB CONCEALS THE SPIES

THE spies went into Jericho and lodged in the home of a woman named Rahab. The king of Jericho heard that they had come to search the land and sent messengers to Rahab for them. She had hidden them upon the roof. Rahab told the spies that the people were afraid of the children of Israel, for they knew the Lord was with them. She asked that they remember her kindness to them and protect her family when Israel would come into Jericho. Then she let them down through the window and they returned to Joshua and told all things that had happened.

New York-Day-By-Day

NEW YORK, June 21.—At the premiere of New York's supreme summer show—the Folies! It glorifies the American girl, the producer says, but Will Rogers naively remarks that it may glorify her, but it also exposes her. The Folies first night is the night for the cognescent who have not trailed off to climb an Alp or open a Newport villa.

Forty-second street is lined with curious gapers to watch the arrivals. The curtain rises at 8:10, but the house was practically empty at 8. And then the rush—the panic. The lobby fills. And New York's smartest audience seeps through the darkened house to seats.

When the lights go on they turn from the show to watch each other and wave greetings. The chronicle first nighters and the Death Watch occupy the lower part of the house. The usual crowd.

The high spots: Herwood Brown, the critic, on the aisle spurring the conventional dinner jacket. Frank Munsey in full evening regalia. Lily Madison, the society reporter, his cherub face a beam. For Dolly is really Morrie Paul, who has a triple ply social standing. Reggie Vanderbilt and his famous white silk vest.

All so New Yorkish. O very. Still all. Liberty bonds are selling above one misses Diamond Jim Brady and his resplendent white shirt front. No first nighter before or since has occupied his peculiar niche along the Hamlet. Diamond Jim set the opening time for it was a superstition that bad luck followed the rising of the curtain without him.

During the entr'acte men and women leave their seats and promenade. The women disobeying fire and house regulations by puffing cigarettes. There are many jeweled flasks passed about. And the show runs along until 2 o'clock and all stay to the finish to be present when the stars drag the lavender collared Ziegfeld from the stage box as the curtain falls.

New York's most illustrious golf fan is a New Rochelle resident. To avoid the jam at the municipal links in Van Cortland Park on Sunday, he packs up a blanket, a grapefruit and his clubs on Saturday night and trolleys to the course, where he camps out all night. To make sure that his form won't be ruined by too many observers or that he won't have to stand in line, he pitches his camp near the tenth hole.

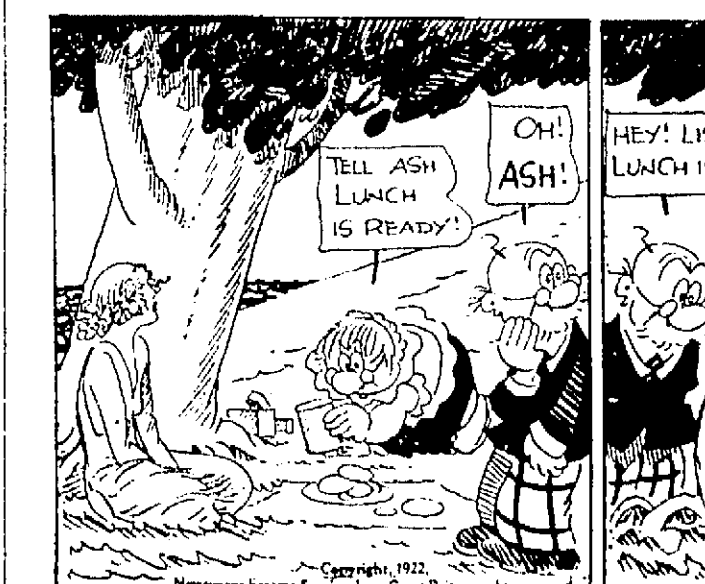

The world is righting itself after all. Liberty bonds are selling above par. The city parks are without their armies of jobless and up on West 145th street I saw this sign: "Apartments for rent at $30 a month. First month rent free."

A lithe sinuous lady in a flaming red gown and black pleated hat came out of a candy store on the avenue the other afternoon carrying a red walking stick in one hand and a lap dog dried henna under her arm. She walked southward and, was, of course, followed by a crowd of curious pedestrians. At Fort-second street the traffic cop stopped the crowd to turn traffic while he personally escorted her, across the street. I looked about for a moving picture camera, but none was in sight. "It may be something new in style. But my guess is that she was a chorus girl trying desperately to achieve the first page. She failed miserably."

"Still and all," as the chorus lady says—walking sticks for women are quite popular. At least a dozen may be seen in a half hour's stroll in the crowded sections. They go mostly this summer with sport togs.

To Sleep
A flock of sheep that leisurely pass by,
One after one, the sound of rain,
and bees
Murmuring, the fall of rivers
winds and seas,
Smooth fields, white sheets of water,
and pure sky;
I have thought of all by turns, and yet do lie
Sleepless! And soon the 'small'
birds' melodies
Must hear: first uttered from my orchard trees,
And the first cuckoo's melancholy cry.
Even this last night, and two nights
more, I lay,
And could not win thee, sleep, by any stealth;
So do not let me wear tonight
away;
Without thee, what is all the morn-ing's wealth?
Come blessed harrier between day
and day,
Dear mother of fresh thoughts and joyous health!
—Wordsworth.

"John" asked father, "do you practice on the piano while I am away at business?"
"Yes, father, every day," replied the boy.

"How long did you practice to-day?"
"Three hours."

"Well, I am glad to hear that you are so regular. And the next time you practice be sure to unlock the piano. Here is the key. I locked the instrument last week and have been carrying the key in my pocket ever since."—Vancouver Province.

Fatal Guessing
Do the makers of wildcat liquor in this region use any set formula asked a tourist in the Ozarks.
No, replied a resident of the Straddle Ridge neighborhood. They just go ahead and the corner does the rest.—Kansas City Star.

Not From a Bank Ad
She reached below her dimpled knee into her rolled-down stocking. And there she found a roll of bills; Ah, me! 'Twas sweetly shocking! "Why don't you keep it in a bank?" Inquired a nosy priest.
"The principal is the same," she said, "but the interest here is higher."

Oh, Willow! Willow!
Ted—if you knew you would have to marry a girl you were about to save from drowning would you still try to save her?
Christie—Oh, yes; I would try, but I might be taken with cramps before I reached her.

Said a Cautful
Said a bald-headed man to a waitress bold: "See here, young woman, my cocoa's cold."
She scornfully answered: "I can't help that; if the blamed thing's chilly, put on your hat!"—New York Central Magazine.

STATION AGENT DAD KEYES THOUGHT HE HAD FOUND THE HIDING PLACE OF THE UNKNOWN PERSON WHO TAMPERED WITH THE DOOR OF ROBINSON'S STORE THE OTHER NIGHT

For possessing liquor unlawfully, Mrs. Myrtle Gibbs, who conducts a grocery store at 1228 Front street, was assessed the minimum fine of $100 and costs by Judge McCall on her admission of guilty in Municipal court Wednesday.
Acting on a tip the police raided the home of Mrs. Gibbs Tuesday night and a search resulted in the uncovering of two small vials of "moon" secreted under the kitchen sink. The accused stoutly denied ownership of the liquor, declaring that it was left there with her consent by a huckster from Kentucky, who made regular calls to her store to sell vegetables and produce.

Has No Information To Give Out
Attorney B. F. Kimble stated Wednesday that he had no information to give out regarding the Southwest Land company's deal, which fell through, and he did not authorize the using of his name by the land company.

Mr. Kimble said he did not care to cast any reflection on either party and does not wish to become involved in the controversy.

WILL NAME HOSPITAL COMMISSION

At the regular meeting of City Council Wednesday night Mayor Gableman is expected to submit for confirmation the names of five persons to compose the Commission to have charge of the erection of the addition to Hempstead hospital which was authorized at a recent meeting when council voted to issue bonds to the extent of $800,000.

Owing to the absence of Members George M. Osborn and Miss Emma Gramer of the Finance Committee, the semi-annual appropriation ordinance to provide funds to pay the current expenses of the various city departments for the last six months of 1922, is not expected to be submitted for passage until the first meeting in July.

Women Have Row
Mesdames Lillie Veach and Lorraine Diller live neighbors on new Fifth street. Tuesday they had a falling out and the row which ensued resulted in complaints to the police and the filing of charges, one against the other, in Municipal court. Mrs. Veach was charged with slander and Mrs. Diller with disorderly conduct, but the latter was reported sick and unable to appear for trial Wednesday, which led Judge McCall to continue the cases for further developments after giving both sides a stern warning they must refrain from causing further trouble. Mr. Diller was in court and stated that he was arranging to move away from the vicinity, which will put an end to hostilities between the two women at least.

"Orator" Pinched

Tom McGinn, 45, after tanking up on "moon" Tuesday entertained a crowd at Eleventh and Waller streets with a speech which was interrupted by the arrival of the police who towed the "orator" to the city jail along with his companion, James Aikens, who also was much the worse off from strong drinks. They were later released on bond to appear Thursday morning for trial.

Entertain Committee

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Haight of 1140 Fourth street, entertained the members of the efficiency committee of the First Christian Bible school, their wives and Superintendent and Mrs. O. M. Howland at their hospitable home, Tuesday evening. The officials mapped out a campaign that will be inaugurated on July 16 and continue until the first Sunday in September, which it is believed, will keep interest in the big school at high tide during the torrid days. The plan will not be announced until later.

At the conclusion of the business session, refreshments consisting of grape punch and home-made cake were served. Mrs. Haight was assisted in serving by her guest, Miss Virginia Ault, of Grayson, Ky.
